

APPLICATION FOR DIVERSITY COUNCIL INTERNSHIP

The Diversity Council Internship aims to provide students an opportunity to explore and support diversity at Washington State University Vancouver. The intern will work with the Diversity Council Chair and the Diversity Faculty Fellow to assist in developing and implementing Council goals and activities. Through its subcommittees on campus climate, scholarship and curriculum, student recruitment and retention, administration and systems, and faculty and staff recruitment and retention, the Diversity Council works to advance diversity efforts throughout the entire campus. Interns will have the opportunity to focus on diversity issues in these areas, as well as to explore personal areas of interest related to diversity in higher education. One Diversity Council Intern will be selected each year. The intern will receive a stipend of up to $3000 (paid as an hourly wage of $10 per hour).

Qualifications:

- Strong organizational skills
- Interest in and commitment to furthering diversity at WSU Vancouver
- Ability to work independently and in a team setting
- Excellent interpersonal, written and oral communication skills
- Available to work approximately 10 hours/week throughout 2008-2009 academic year
- Good academic standing (minimum 2.0 cumulative GPA or above)
- Must be enrolled in at least 6 credits of WSUV coursework while serving as an intern (this does not include WSU Distance Degree Program coursework)

Responsibilities of Intern:

- Assist Chair and other Diversity Council members to plan and promote multicultural activities and programming
- Attend Diversity Council meetings and participate on Council sub-committees
- Represent WSU Vancouver Diversity Council at various campus events
- Assist with on-campus and community outreach
- Complete an independent project each semester (to be established with Diversity Council chair)
- Assist in maintaining Diversity Council website
- Other duties as assigned

Application Deadline: Friday, 1 August 2008
