

Master of Accounting

with an emphasis in taxation

This high quality AACSB accredited master's program features small, interactive classes that bring together engaged business faculty and experienced professionals in the community.

The Master of Accounting degree emphasizes taxation. The program is designed for individuals pursuing accounting careers and is one of only two accounting master's degrees in Washington with accounting accreditation from AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Our Master of Accounting program serves working professionals in the local business community through part-time, evening courses.

The degree offers individuals:

- Greater breadth and depth in accounting than is possible in baccalaureate or MBA programs.
- Additional credit hours targeted to professional accounting to meet the 150 hours necessary for CPA examination eligibility.

* The Master of Accounting enhances career opportunities and is in demand from employers
