ABOUT WSU VANCOUVER

One of four campuses making up the Washington State University system, WSU Vancouver is celebrating 25 years of progress in providing access to baccalaureate-level education for Southwest Washington. As the only four-year research university in this part of the state, the university offers big-school resources in a small-school environment and fuels the region’s economic growth.

LEADERSHIP

Chancellor Emile “Mel” Netzhammer

BY THE NUMBERS

- Enrollment: 3,264 students
- Female: 54.2%
- Male: 45.8%
- Students of color represent 20.8% of total enrollment
- Veterans represent 5.6% of total enrollment
- More than 160 doctorate faculty
- 14:1 student:faculty ratio
- More than 11,000 WSU Vancouver alumni, 75% of whom remain in the area
- More than 18,000 area WSU alumni
- More than 186,000 WSU alumni worldwide

LOCATION AND FACILITIES

- 10 miles north of the Columbia River
- 13 buildings
- 14 computer labs
- 200-seat lecture hall
- Art sculptures and galleries
- Bookstore
- Coffee bar and café
- Comprehensive library
- Firstenburg Student Commons
- Fitness center
- Hillside amphitheater
- Landmark Firstenburg Family Fountain
- More than 50 student organizations
- More than six miles of bicycle and pedestrian trails
- Multipurpose court and disc golf course
- Preschool and kindergarten programs

Visit “Degrees, Majors and Programs” online for a complete list of academic opportunities.