

Apply online to become a Student Ambassador for 2008–2009

Deadline is Friday, February 22, 2008 at noon. Go to www.vancouver.wsu.edu/tour to apply!

What is the Washington State University Vancouver Student Ambassador Program?

The WSU Vancouver Student Ambassador Program is a group of outstanding students who are selected to represent the University to prospective students, their families and the community at large.

Who are the Student Ambassadors?

The most qualified and diverse students from a variety of majors will be chosen to work together to build on our University's outstanding reputation and bring future Cougars to our campus. Students must have completed one semester at WSU Vancouver prior to Spring 2008 and must anticipate a graduation date of May 2009 or later. Review specific time commitments at the website listed above.

What type of work are Student Ambassadors assigned?

Student Ambassadors will offer tours to prospective students, assist with orientation, attend recruiting events, conduct on campus programming and connect with students who have specific questions about our campus community. Ambassadors also attend important campus events and assist faculty and administration in community outreach efforts.

What are the benefits of becoming a Student Ambassador?

- ◆ Develop valuable leadership and communication skills
- ◆ Opportunity to be part of a group of students who represent the institution to prospective and current students, families, and the community at large
- ◆ Make meaningful connections with prospective students by sharing your experience and knowledge of WSU Vancouver
- ◆ Work closely with University staff and administration
- ◆ A $2000 tuition waiver ($1000/semester) is granted to each Student Ambassador
- ◆ Excellent experience for your personal resume
